Forecast For Northern Ireland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Wednesday 02 Jun 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Warm and sunny.

Today:
Bright with some good spells of sunshine. Warm again, highest temperatures around the north coast. However, some showery outbreaks of rain are possible later in the day in the south. Maximum temperature 23 deg C (73 deg F).

Tonight:
A cloudy evening and a few showers, possibly heavy with thunder, later in the night. Low cloud and fog likely around the east by morning. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Thursday:
A cloudy start on Thursday and quite murky around eastern coasts, bright and sunny by afternoon for most, strengthening winds. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
A few showers around on Friday and cloudier especially in the west. Cloudy on Saturday with more significant rain on Saturday night but drier again on Sunday.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.